Minimum Viable Product (MVP)

Definition:

A Minimum Viable Product (MVP) is a product with just enough features to satisfy early customers, and to provide feedback for future product development.

MVP:

1. Organising files via an easy swipe functions
2. Ability to skip a file via different input
3. Ability to open/create folders
4. Exit without losing progress
5. Minimalistic permission system